Thrown from His Seat and Killed. National Associated Press to the Star. New York, April 18.—John Stricklin, a driver, belonging to Barnum's show, was thrown from a wagon drawn by six horses, this morning, and instantly killed. The horses had run away, and the driver, with great coolness, had guided them over a mile through crowded thoroughfares, when the wheels caught in the railroad track and he was hurled from his seat and his brains dashed out on the pavement. The horses finally stopped. The wagon was badly smashed.

Stabbed His Mistress. National Associated Press to the Star. Providence, R. I., April 18.—A serious stabbing affair occurred in this city shortly after 12 o'clock this morning. Corporal Hassan Sulah, one of the Turkish inspectors of Arras, quarreled with a woman named Dollie May at her lodgings on North Main street, when he drew a knife and stabbed her twice in the breast, inflicting dangerous wounds. She fled from the room and the Turk sprang from the window, three stories from the ground, breaking several of his ribs and sustaining other injuries. It is thought, however, that both parties will recover. Corporal Sulah has been in this country about a year, and belongs to the corps of arms inspectors under charge of General Erafik. He has been living with the woman May for several weeks, and both parties were intoxicated at the time of the quarrel.

Export of Torpedoes Prohibited. National Associated Press to the Star. London, April 18.—The Government has issued a declaration prohibiting the export from England of torpedoes and torpedo appliances.

NEW YORK CITY.

A Defaulter's Spree. National Associated Press to the Star. New York, April 18.—General Henry L. Snay, whose disappearance and default were noted some days since, has been found from Montreal. He arrived there two weeks ago, in company with a fair innocent, and had evidently started on one of his frequent sprees, although he had only recently joined the temperance organization and taken the pledge. He had a considerable amount of English and Canadian money, besides about $1,700 in United States notes, which he gave in charge of a clerk at the Windsor Hotel, where he and his companion sojourned. He registered under the name of "Col. S. G. Henry," and remained at the hotel, making frequent drafts upon his deposits, until a Senatorial party arrived from Albany and stopped at the same hotel. He was known to many of them, and, evidently fearing recognition, moved immediately to the Hotel Richelieu, where he has been seen.

Moses Goes South. Judge Potter yesterday in the Supreme Court dismissed the writ of habeas corpus against Ex-Governor Moses, who was then taken back to police headquarters. Superintendent Walling declined to hold the prisoner any longer. Sheriff Conner then took him to the Tombs Police Court to see if the sitting Magistrate would not commit him until Saturday next. The Magistrate refused to have anything to do with the case. The Sheriff then left with his prisoner, saying that he would take him back to South Carolina anyhow.

Curing Hydrophobia With Strychnine. Richard Schweitzer, a boy nine years old, residing with his parents on One Hundred and Sixty-sixth street, was bitten about a month ago by a Spitz dog. The wound was dressed and it was quickly healed. Nothing more was thought of the case until Tuesday last, when the boy began to act strangely. He refused to eat and had spasms when he attempted to drink water. Dr. K. von Mann was called in and he immediately pronounced it a case of hydrophobia. A number of remedies were tried, but without effect, and the boy's sufferings became terrible. Finally the doctor gave the patient small doses of strychnine every two hours. This appeared to give the sufferer considerable relief, and last evening he was able to swallow two teaspoonfuls of water, and hopes are now entertained that he may recover.

The Newell Divorce Case. The latest proceeding in the Newell divorce case is of considerable interest, and attracts a great multitude of spectators. Mrs. Newell's counsel rested their case, reserving, however, the mass of letters to be read in rebuttal. Mr. Newell's counsel opened for the defense, and gave out the line of what the defense hoped to prove. Mrs. Newell, for a few moments, also figured as a witness. During the proceedings there were some lively tiffs between the opposing counsel, which had to be stopped by the intervention of Judge Lawrence. Miss Olney declares all the testimony against her false. Mr. Arnold read the deposition of the chambermaid, Mary Campbell, who lived in the same house with Mrs. Newell, No. 2 Somerset street, Boston, which was kept by a Mrs. Knowlton.

Much of the testimony of this witness is untruthful. Mrs. Newell promised her a home for herself and daughter for life and $2,000 if she would not tell her opponents in the Boardman case what she knew. Mary replied that "She would tell the truth if called upon, and that she could not be bribed with the weight of a piano in gold." [Laughter.] On her cross examination Mary was asked why she left Mrs. Pollard's employ in Boston. She replied, "On account of her having a white servant girl that had a colored baby." [Laughter.] Case continued till to-day.

The World on the Conkling Interview.

The World says: "Senator Conkling seems to have passed a good deal of his time yesterday in showing a variety of persons how impossible it is that he should have made the statements attributed to him in a communication from Utes, published in the World. But we leave the author of the communication to deal with Conkling in his own way, as we think it due to our readers and to the public to say now that we have the author's positive assurance that on Friday of last week he wrote to Conkling, distinctly informing him that he had prepared this document for publication, and intended to publish it; and that on Sunday, April 14th, Senator Conkling telegraphed him a reply to the effect: 'Your letter greatly surprises me. The conversation was all in confidence. I cannot consent to its violation.' To this the author of the communication the next day replied that he did not consider that Conkling had any right to forbid publication, and that he would not be bound by his dictation."

A MAGNANIMOUS RAILROAD CORPORATION.

Hartford, Conn., April 18.—A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Connecticut Western Railroad Company was held in this city yesterday for the purpose of considering what course the Company should pursue in regard to the sufferers by the recent Hartford disaster. While the Board held the view that the Company were not legally or morally liable, the accident being inevitable, they were unanimously in favor of doing all in their power towards their relief. In accordance with this disposition a committee was appointed who were instructed to confer with the injured and friends and families of those who were killed, to see what they are willing to accept from the Company as aid for damages received. This action on the part of the Company is purely voluntary, and is taken without allowing the legal responsibility of the Company.

ASSASSINATED IN HIS OWN DOOR.

Boston, Mass., April 17.—Paymaster Lyons, of the Ninth Massachusetts Regiment, was shot through the stomach at his own door, on Harrison avenue, last evening. The assassin is a young man who has been or is keeping his daughter's company, and whose name is Charles H. Lannan, twenty years of age. He was promptly arrested. The ball entered Lyons' bowels, and it is not probable he will live till morning. The circumstances of the case are wrapped in mystery. The prisoner's story is that he and the young lady were just returning from his (Lannan's) house, when they met Lyons on the door-step. The latter began to reiterate remarks of his disapproval of the young people's intimacy, and, so Lannan says, took hold of him to pull him into the house; whereupon, in self-defense, he drew his revolver and fired, with the above result. The young lady refused to be seen to-night; her version can not, therefore, be learned. Mr. Lyons is a liquor dealer on Beach street.

BEECHER-TILTON.

Interest in the Scandal Dying Out.

National Associated Press to the Star. New York, April 18.—The question whether or not Mrs. Tilton is insane is discussed in connection with the possibility of action by Plymouth Church in her case. If she is held to be insane, as many Plymouth members consider her to be, no steps can be taken by the church to drop her name from the roll. It is not now believed Mrs. Tilton's letter to Mrs. Raymond written a month ago, in which the writer declared she was guilty, will be published. Thomas G. Shearman holds it at present. Miss Catharine E. Beecher has written to the Tribune, expressing her indignation at the charges against her brother. Mr. Beecher was at Avon, N. Y., last night. He dwelt at length on the subject of "Lying and Prying." He said: "Lie not for love, lie not for mercy, lie not for humanity, lie not at all. It was not necessary for Lord Jesus Christ to lie; he was a perfect example."

THE OHIO REPUBLICANS.

State Convention to be Held in Cincinnati June 12th.

National Associated Press to the Star.

COLUMBUS, O., April 18.—Leading Republicans from various parts of Ohio held a conference here last night to consult relative to the next campaign. At the meeting a letter was read addressed to the Chairman of the State Executive Committee from Secretary Sherman on the conduct of the next campaign. He declared the Administration to be a Republican one, and that it ought to be supported as such. He says the President was elected by Republicans; he has been faithful and true to the pledges made by the party.

Convention that nominated him, and represents the aspirations and hopes of the best elements of our party. Some complaint has been made as to the distribution of the offices and to the interference of officers in the elections, but surely such complaints should not come from a people upon whom properly devolves the conduct of all political government free from officious interference by Federal officers. With very rare exceptions, founded upon local or special reasons, Republicans have been nominated to office, and the official duty has been faithfully and well performed, as much so as during any period of our history. Upon the financial question we certainly have done what we promised to do. It is true also that the policy of conciliation, the South, adopted from the highest motives of the public good, has resulted in quiet, peace and order, and as I believe, will in due time result in the ascendancy of the Republican party in several of the Southern States. The only threat that endangers the public weal and safety is the restoration of the Democratic party to power.

Addresses were made by Ex-Governor Thomas L. Young, Ex-Governor Dennison and others.

The State Convention will be held in Cincinnati June 12th.

Scenes on the Border.

National Associated Press to the Star.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, April 18.—A fearful scene occurred in a court-room yesterday evening. Three men named Cox, Ryan and Sitterlee had murdered on old man named Brazell and his son, in DeWitt County, in 1867. The old man was dying of consumption when he was killed. The jury last evening brought in a verdict of guilty, which means that the prisoners have to hang. When the verdict was announced the female relatives of the prisoners screamed so as to be heard for a long distance, and the wives of two of them fainted. The prisoners were then handcuffed together and removed. Three more of the implicated parties are to be tried soon. There is universal satisfaction at the result, as the habit of jurors in turning criminals loose had become alarmingly frequent of late.

Telegrams from Fort Concho confirm the news of the robbery of the mail near Escondido and the murder of the Mexican who was with the mail-carriers.

Another Sensation in Richmond, Indiana.

National Associated Press to the Star.

RICHMOND, April 18.—This morning, as Charles Mall, with his cousin Isaac, were coming into the north part of the city to work, when coming out of a bridge not far out of town, they were met by his brothers-in-law, John and Joe Stevinson, who fired from revolvers seven shots at Charles Mall, three taking effect in his mouth, hip and leg, and then left him in the buggy with his cousin and hurried away. Mall several years ago married a daughter of Mr. Stevinson, a very respectable farmer. During the sickness of his wife he seduced his sister-in-law, and one other lady in the vicinity. He now lies in a critical condition. The Stevinsons will probably give themselves up.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 18.—Yesterday afternoon the jury in the United States Court, which for ten days past has been engaged in the trial of Christian Salentine, charged with the illicit manufacture of high wines from molasses, returned a verdict adjudging the defendant guilty on all four counts charged in the indictment found by the Grand Jury.

The court then for the prisoner gave notice of a motion for a new trial, and Judge Dyer directed a temporary stay of proceedings, announcing that he would hear argument on the motion during the present week.

New bonds in the sum of $2,500 were furnished by Salentine, and he was released from custody.
